Submitted to His Highness.

Rao Sahib Dr. S. Krishnaswami Iyengar, Supernumerary Professor of History, whose services have been lent to the Madras University for employment as Professor of Indian History and Archaeology till 1st November 1924, has submitted a representation requesting to be informed whether he can be permitted to retire from Mysore service with effect from 1st January 1924 on a pension of Rs. 5,000 a year.

On 1st January 1924, Dr. Krishnaswami Iyengar had put in a service of 28 years 10 months and 10 days. As he will complete 30 years of service only on 20th February 1925, he is ineligible to retire before that date. The loan of his services to the Madras University will terminate by 1st November 1924. The Vice Chancellor of the Mysore University, who was consulted, is of opinion that Dr. Krishnaswami Iyengar's services are not required by the University when he reverts. Under the rules, he can retire from 20th February 1925, but he does not become superannuated till April 1926. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, the Chief Secretary recommends that the best thing would be to permit Dr. Krishnaswami Iyengar to retire from the date on which the loan of his services to the Madras University terminates, i.e., 1st November 1924. The Financial Secretary agrees in this view.

This recommendation which has been also agreed to by the Members of Council may be graciously approved.

C.B. 69-23-5

Dear sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with your D.O.No.2104/C.B.69-23-4 dated the 19th inst. I beg leave to submit that in the event of my services not being required by the University on the expiry of the period for which my services have been lent to the Madras University I still have a right to fall back upon the Mysore Educational Service to which I belong, and to go on in it till I complete my 55th year, under the ordinary rules. As you have already admitted in a previous D.O. I am similarly entitled to retire on a pension calculated on Rs. 1,000/-, my present salary at the University, as from the 4th of September next, when I complete my 30 years of service. On the basis of these two admitted facts my position is to put it briefly, as follows:--

I have a title to go on in the Mysore Service from November 1924 to the 15th of April 1926, the time when I complete my 55th year. I believe, under the rules now in force, I have a title to 8 months' full-pay-leave and two years' furlough. Under the ruling of the financial department, as recently given, when I wanted leave on the score of ill-health, my taking either of the kinds of leave is made practically impossible, and, if according to the latest D.O. of yours it would be convenient for the Mysore Government that I retire at the end of the present period of my loan, I shall certainly be most willing to meet their convenience by retiring from the service, and saving them the trouble arising out of my reversion to service. Having regard to the fact that

(1) I have actually worked 10 months in the department in 1893-4, which period under the rules has not been counted for service,

(2) that under the ruling of the Financial Department I am practically deprived of the total benefit of the leave to which I have a title and (3) that it subserves somewhat to the convenience of the administrative arrangements of the government that I retire.

I beg to know whether the Government would permit me, as a last act of favour, to retire as from the commencement of the new year on a pension of Rs. Rs.5,000/- a year under the rules. This involves really nothing more than a technical breach of the rules, which in the peculiar circumstances of my position, seems to me not too much to overlook.

I request the favour therefore of your final decision in regard to the matter.

Yours sincerely,

S. Krishnaswami Aiyanga

With reference to your letter of the 31st December 1923 enquiring whether in the circumstances stated, the Government would permit you to retire from the service from the 1st January 1924 on a pension of Rs.5,000 a year, I am directed to state that Government, after considering all the circumstances of the case, have decided to permit you as a special case to retire from the Mysore service from the date on which the loan of your services to the Madras University terminates, that is, the 1st November 1924.
